

UNITED STATES – SECTIONS 301-310 OF THE TRADE ACT OF 1974

Communication from the Chairman of the Panel

The following communication, dated 27 September 1999, addressed to the Dispute Settlement Body, is circulated in accordance with Article 12.9 of the DSU.

Article 12.8 of the DSU stipulates that the period in which a panel shall conduct its examination, from the date that the composition and terms of reference of the panel have been agreed upon until the date that the final report is issued to the parties shall, as a general rule, not exceed six months.

Article 12.9 of the DSU states that when a panel considers that it cannot issue its report within six months, it shall inform the Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) in writing of the reasons for the delay, together with an estimate of the period within which it will issue its report.

The Panel on "United States – Sections 301-310 of the Trade Act of 1974" was established by the DSB on 2 March 1999 to examine two separate complaints from the European Communities.

The Director-General composed the Panel, pursuant to Article 8.7 of the DSU, on 31 March 1998. However, it will not be possible for the Panel to complete its work in six months due to the complex nature of the case.

The Panel expects to circulate the final report to the parties by the middle of November 1999.
