Article 12.8 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes (DSU) provides that the period in which a panel shall conduct its examination, from the date that the composition and terms of reference of the panel have been agreed upon until the date the final report is issued to the parties to the dispute, shall, as a general rule, not exceed six months.

Article 12.9 of the DSU provides that, when a panel considers that it cannot issue its report within six months, it shall inform the Dispute Settlement Body (DSB) in writing accordingly and indicate the reasons, together with an estimate of the period within which it will issue its report.

The Panel on European Union - Measures Related to Price Comparison Methodologies (WT/DS516) was established by the DSB on 3 April 2017 and composed on 10 July 2017.

On 8 December 2017, the Panel communicated to the DSB that it did not expect to issue its final report to the parties before the second half of 2018.<sup>1</sup>

In the light of the complexity of the legal issues covered in this dispute, the Panel now expects to issue its final report to the parties during the second quarter of 2019.
