

UNITED STATES – USE OF ZEROING IN ANTI-DUMPING MEASURES INVOLVING PRODUCTS FROM KOREA

Communication from the United States

The following communication, dated 8 December 2011, from the delegation of the United States to the Chairperson of the Dispute Settlement Body, is circulated at the request of that delegation.

The United States is pleased to inform the Dispute Settlement Body ("DSB") that it has fully implemented the recommendations and rulings of the DSB in the dispute United States – Use of Zeroing in Anti-Dumping Measures Involving Products from Korea (WT/DS402) within the reasonable period of time agreed by the parties to the dispute.

On 24 February 2011, the DSB adopted its recommendations and rulings in this dispute. The United States and the Republic of Korea ("Korea") agreed that the reasonable period of time for the United States to implement the recommendations and rulings of the DSB with respect to the Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof from Korea investigation would end on 24 October 2011, and that the reasonable period of time for the United States to implement the recommendations and rulings of the DSB with respect to the Stainless Steel Plate in Coils from Korea and Stainless Steel Sheet and Strip in Coils from Korea investigations would end on 24 November 2011.

With respect to the recommendations and rulings of the DSB regarding the Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof investigation, the United States Department of Commerce issued a revised determination in which it calculated the anti-dumping duty margins with offsets, effective 24 October 2011. The Department published a notice of implementation of the revised determination in the Federal Register (76 Fed. Reg. 66892 (28 Oct. 2011)). The order with respect to diamond sawblades and parts thereof from Korea has been revoked.

With respect to the recommendations and rulings of the DSB regarding each of the Stainless Steel Plate in Coils and Stainless Steel Sheet and Strip in Coils investigations, the Department issued a revised determination in which it calculated the antidumping duty margins with offsets, effective 16 November 2011. The Department published a notice of implementation of the revised determination in the Federal Register (76 Fed. Reg. 74771 (1 Dec. 2011)). The order with respect to stainless steel plate in coils from Korea has been revoked, and the order with respect to stainless sheet and strip in coils from Korea has been revoked with respect to two respondents.
